LIVING ON THE EDGE OF GREEN—
DOUGLAS BUSCH

Everything you do is just exquisite. I look forward to your next masterpiece.

David Geffen

As you would expect, a natural slab table from Pollaro is unique.
Our tabletops begin with exotic logs of uncommon figure and color.
We finish them by hand with natural oils and mount each on a beautifully designed and crafted base.
For the discriminating client, there is no substitute for the finest materials and the highest craftsmanship.

We are, after all, Pollaro.
